ABSTRACT

Compositions and methods are disclosed herein for treating female pattern hair loss with phytoestrogens. A method for diagnosing subjects in need of a phytoestrogen treatment and guiding the application of a phytoestrogen treatment are also described. Additionally, a method for diagnosing a subject at high risk for female pattern hair loss who will likely respond to phytoestrogen prophylactic treatment is described. A method for combining the composition described herein with topical minoxidil for androgenetic alopecia is described.
